

THE COPYRIGHT SOCIETY
OF THE U.S.A.

Copyright & Art

When art meets commerce -
What happens?

Thursday, November, 29

Registration 5:30 • Program 6:00-7:00

Light hors d'oeuvres will be served

Program followed by questions & answers

Printing generously donated by Migu Press, Inc.

What are the legal limitations on using materials created by others? How do I turn my art into money? In the age of "rip, mix, burn" - are the rules changing?

Using lively examples from the work of artists such as Marcel Duchamps, Andy Warhol, Richard Prince and Miltos Manetas, this entertaining presentation explores the boundaries between the First Amendment and intellectual property rights.

Woodcock Washburn LLP, The Cira Centre,
2929 Arch Street, Philadelphia

(The Cira Centre is connected to 30th Street Station via overpass walkway!)

Guest Presenter: Ray Dowd, Esq.

of Dunnington, Bartholow & Miller LLP New York, NY

Please RSVP to Diane Ketler, Woodcock Washburn, at 215-564-5127
or dketler@woodcock.com