Program:

Join students and practitioners as we discuss the effects of digital technology on the entertainment industry and the law. The program will touch on litigation and transactional issues, examining how the rapid advance of digitization has had far reaching implications for all the players in the industry.

This event will feature a panel including

- Kevin Cross, Vice President Business & Legal Affairs at Starz Entertainment
- David Ratner, Replin & Rhoades, LLC
- Kevin Shand, former director of the Colorado Office of Film, Television, and Media
- And other distinguished guests to be announced!

The program will feature a panel discussion and question-&-answer session. Please join all the participants for a reception following the program.

No RSVP required
Parking is available in the parking garage underneath the Law Building
