

ANNA KRASKE

Anna Kraske was formerly Vice President and Associate General Counsel of The Donna Karan Company LLC, where she worked for approximately seven years. As part of her responsibilities, she often had cause to consider the practical application of copyright and other laws to cases involving theft of designs. Prior to joining Donna Karan, Ms. Kraske worked for several years on intellectual property matters at Cowan Liebowitz & Latman and, before that, at Proskauer Rose. Ms. Kraske is currently focusing on educating her two toddlers in the value of originality in authorship, as well as serving on the board of the Dumbo Arts Center, a not for profit organization devoted to increasing public awareness of experimental art.
