

Steve Tapia

Microsoft
Law and Corporate Affairs

Steve Tapia heads Microsoft's Copyright And Trade Secret Practice Group. In addition to practicing entertainment, media and intellectual property law for 24 years, he also served as an entertainment business executive for 5 years. He has been the primary counsel for MSN, MSNBC, Slate, and Microsoft's corporate marketing and advertising operations. Prior to joining Microsoft, Steve was in-house counsel for HBO and KCET (Los Angeles' PBS station). Steve began as an intellectual property and media litigator at Loeb and Loeb, Los Angeles. He frequently speaks on copyright law, online advertising issues, media law, first amendment issues and digital downloads of entertainment content. Steve also is a professional musician.